

Itinerary for the NTC and NTCA Tour of the Hill
May 3, 2018

Meet at 8:45 am at the main entrance to the Event Center for a prompt 9:00 am departure from Purina Farms

Arrive at the Holiday Inn Six Flags at approximately 9:15 am to pick up the members of our group who are staying there.

Mimosa greeting

Arrival on The Hill at approximately 10:30 am

Greetings and taste treat

We will visit Mama Toscano's for a ravioli making demonstration. Mama Toscano's has been featured on Food Network 3 times including Chef Mario Batali's show and Rachel Ray's Appetizers Cookbook featuring specialties from Missouri, as well as numerous local and regional coverages.

Closed toed shoes and covered shoulders are mandatory due to FDA regulations.

Locals and regionals can bring coolers for purchases throughout the day

11:15 Visit to "Hall of Fame" Places; childhood homes of Yogi Berra and Joe Garagiola.

11:30 Riding tour of the Hill

11:45 Visit to the private beautiful indoor Italia America Bocce Club, home to the 2018 National Bocce Championships. Lessons, history and some play included if courts are available.

12:20 Tour of St. Ambrose Church

12:30 Lunch and shopping on your own. Must shop venues include DeGregorio's Italian Market, Viviano's Market for Italian deli specialties and the Missouri Baking Company for eye popping pastries and baked goods. Our tour guide will give us maps and a primer on the nearby restaurants and delis plus specialty Italian stores. All during the tour our Hill native guide, Joe DeGregorio will provide us with historical and sometimes hysterical stories of this famous neighborhood.

2:30 departure for Holiday Inn Six Flags and Purina Farms